

COVID-19 update

Hello,

As a valued stakeholder in Victoria's multicultural community, we are re-sending you an update from the Victorian Government on the easing of restrictions, explaining the social bubble and support available for workers. Please see below for updated links to 'support for workers' materials.

The latest stakeholder pack \(available here\) contains links to materials in Simplified Chinese/Mandarin, Greek and Vietnamese.

Thanks to every Victorian's hard work, the numbers are decreasing. But there's still a little while to go. Please share these materials widely with your networks, to help ensure that everyone understands what is required of them.

We are always seeking to improve these materials, and encourage feedback or suggestions. Please feel free to reply to this email or contact us on the number below.

Thank you for your ongoing support.

Kind regards
